

Table I

Summary of Top Three Policy Levers For Regionally Elected Leaders

1.	Creation of regional institutional business/social infrastructure that facilitates technical change, and new venture creation.
2.	Creation of institutional mechanism to raise and invest venture capital in regional new ventures.
3.	Creation of detailed input-output econometric model of regional economy to describe industrial clusters and pathway of technical change.